

1776-1962; The USA Empire's Life. 1963- Onwards; The Rise of the New World Order.

It all began with the subversion in 1913 through the Federal Reserve Act pushed by the Wilson administration. Which forced American Patriotism to die long ago with the assassination of John F. Kennedy in 1963, coupled with Nixon's removal of the Gold Standard in 1971 and his 1972 opening of China. It seemed our hope was restored with Ronald W. Reagan's 8 years in office from '81 until '89, with his wide tax reforms, overall rejection of Communism and bolstering of the US military. Then, several presidents later, the four years of Donald J. Trump in office from 2017 to 2021 came around. It was proof enough the American mind was being awakened, and we saw it ripple throughout the world; Brexit occurred, and many other nationalist movements surfaced. China, the world's sleeping paper tiger was finally on the run. What we saw from our enemy in reaction was to steal the 2020 election from Trump, brazenly & openly showing their hand; The amount of fraud discovered and proven was immense, dovetailing into the 2022 mid-terms which showed the continued egregious overstepping of the enemy through its democrat and republican agents. The Donald Trump sold out to the banking and tech classes of America and the foreign lobby powers. His campaign promises have all been taken away and not actionable. We can use the opening that Trump has provided for us in taking back the country. The heir apparent to the America First cause is people like Nicholas Fuentes and Tucker Carlson. Because the MAGA movement is dead we learned a lot from the political bureaucracy and that the country is ready to wake up fully, we must seize the chance to restore the country to what we had in the 1950's under Eisenhower.

The Great Reset has begun and if you have yet to see the destruction of the western world then I invite you to take the mote out of thyne eye. Christianity has been taken from us; It is now known as "Judeo-Christian" values that rule the free-thinking world. In this post-religious western world, no one has any knowledge of the Bible while they attend a church that is purely motivational. Catholicism is unfortunately seen as the head of the Christian faith once more and pedophilia runs rampant throughout the places of governance and Catholicism. Blood money and power is all our leaders care about, while there is not any one left who is meant to save us. Hollywood not only controls the American mind and the western mind; But most of the world by proxy. All the "Big Tech", "Big Pharma", "Big Media" & "Big Convenience" companies run interference on those who try to speak any kind of truth, due to insolent greed and misplaced trust in the banking class.

This Plandemic (2020-2022) was just the beginning of something greater that has been under our collective nose this whole time. We have lost our culture and faith and we are on our last legs of survival and autonomy in the west. The only way we can free ourselves from this subjection is a revolt across the west from the people. A western world revolution that aims to once again lead in truth-seeking, peace and liberty. To be able to become steadfast in holding on to the truth and naming those who would subvert us for their own gain and cause us to fight each other to the death for their own enjoyment.

The policy prescriptions I give below only apply to the USA. Its role as leader and central powerhouse of the free world is what keeps the peace in the west. The greatest threat, China, is currently in position to capitalize on the current downfall of the western economy. Many European economies now rely on the Chinese economy even more heavily than the American economy. Russia's ongoing conflict with Ukraine since 2011 has finally sparked WW3, which has allowed China to make the moves it needed. The fall of Syria and exile of Assad has become the flashpoint of the entire middle east becoming hostile once more, only fueled by the Israel – Gaza conflict. The entire region has become unstable once more. Africa is experiencing their foray into the world by way of Chinese investment and the French's retreat. The USA has barely any power to negotiate peace in both regions and is powerless to do anything. Due to this, there is threat of a conflict on its own soil. As if this is not daunting enough; The world economy is so extremely dependent on China that a huge unemployment wave is being fought off by the new Trump admin via trade tariffs. There will not be a future for your children unless he succeeds; This still doesn't account for if you can even find someone to procreate with. Fourth wave feminism will go into overdrive and the family unit will be completely eradicated. This is what we are already seeing today as I said years ago. If you do not act and wake up a fellow Christian that you know, then you are complacent. Find God. Repent. Seek the Truth. Do not back down. For God and Country.

STAND UP.

In-Depth Voting System

Every male of the age 21 and older that has children must obtain a Voting ID to vote. The Voting ID is granted based on presenting proof of local residence, at least one birth certificate of a child (marriage certificate for women). These are the only citizens allowed to vote.

Executive & Legislative branch of government has its own election cycle.

Executive Branch: Every 5 years. Citizens > Mayors > Governors > President

Legislative Branch: Every 4 years. Citizens > House Reps > Senators

Judicial Branch is Suggested & Approved by the other branches at end of Executive terms.

President suggests the supreme court and is approved by the senate

Governors suggest US federal circuit courts and are approved by the house

Mayors suggest state circuit courts and are voted on by the public

Philosophy and Message

On the rare occasion that someone takes the time to read this and think it all over; I will state my beliefs and background based on my given definitions as well as why I felt the need to compile this list. I am a Center Right-wing Conservative Regionalist with Authoritarian Republican Capitalist views. I have a constrained Patriotic Aristocratic Traditionalistic vision. With the view of politics as a Machiavellian Populistic Voluntarism science. My focus towards International Relations is strictly NeoRealism. I would like to believe this is the most modern way we can have a return to political normalcy in the new era of technological information. I believe that an economy should be regulated in a very basic way, otherwise the market should be free. There is too much progressivism and love for federalism in the everyday life of the common American. They are so swept up in materialism and consumerism produced by corporations because of a highly regulated economy. This has produced a sort of mid-wit class of Americans which is the bell curve theory in action. This has shown the political dichotomy in the USA to be false as the system pushes for essentially the same ideas just with different team names proving horseshoe theory true as well. Trump represents a break in this way of thinking but does not completely change the stage. The democracy of the country has permitted the rule of the mid-wit and still does not produce a new political future for the country, but merely a resetting of an approach to the old one. This is the trouble we face and should strive to fix.

The current societal shift that has overcome most of the western world is drawn fundamentally from the greatest dichotomy in existence. Male vs Female. Our entire political landscape is now shaped by the two sides of the same coin. The Bolsheviks and Zionists produce this craze as their societies are matriarchal. The plague known as egalitarianism, globalism and feminism has traveled to far by way of the internet and is now meeting its last resistance in the Americas. Europe has cucked itself and its citizens are now waking up to what is going on. The highly dove-ish societal idealism has caused this lag in the European mind and America has seen it first. In Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn's "A Warning to The West" in 1976 he was dead set on trying to wake the western world of its coming doom. Though the west would not listen and because of its non-movement we face a hybrid WW3 with China and Russia not on our side.

Now where did this all come from? From whence did the barrier break of natural and virtuous life to let in the degeneracy and hedonistic filled non-virtue that the neo-liberals and communists champion? The presidency of Woodrow Wilson (1913-1921) started it all, for the blatant social programs and nationalization of entire industries he forced during wartime; The 14 points of the peace negotiation was the real premonition for WW2. His post war depression was given to Harding and Coolidge who saved the country from terrible domestic policy, though they could only stall it until Hoover took over. Hoover being the engineer that he was tried to intervene in massive ways in the economy to stop the stock market crash of October 1929. The 1930 Great Depression carried on through his presidency and he took the blame for it, though he was merely reacting to banking practices that forced the economy in decline. Hoover also opposed the repeal of the prohibition act which led to his downfall against FDR. Herbert Hoover's presidency led to 12 years of the most communist president we have ever had, Franklin Delano Roosevelt. FDR's policy of the "New Deal" sealed the practices of previous president Woodrow Wilson. Truman's policy during the end of WW2 was also horrible, the only good thing we got out of him was his red button moment. We would then go on to be led through most of the 50s by Eisenhower who is a seriously underrated president, but he is not too important. What matters most is to talk about the beginning of the 60s with John F. Kennedy the last good democrat; Who was killed for trying to end the federal reserve and central banking, who were responsible for the previous stock market crashes and economic depressions. It was the beginning of a renewed and better Democrat party, doing what many of his predecessors could not do, a renewal of the economy through tackling the source of the problem instead of adding policy on top. Though his assassination over the banking issue and the bay of pigs debacle ended what would have been the new golden age of the American republic. His presidency was handed over to Lyndon B. Johnson, a Texas democrat. He took FDR's ideas and expanded on it once more, the "Great Society" economic plan was initiated. You might also recall, the famous summer of love 1967 happened under his presidency, a lie that was instead sold as progress. This is when the American mind started to rouse as we put Nixon in office, and we started to recover; But he was kicked out of office from a coup d'état inside the intelligence community in our own government. Ford replaced him and Carter after him; Two worthless presidents. Then the great savior came around; Ronald W. Reagan, a traditional democrat who was forced into being a republican. A resurgence of the American dream happened, tax cuts, regulation cut, better foreign policy, peace, GDP growth, unemployment lows and stock market highs like you have not seen before. George H.W. Bush was the first real establishment president of the globalists. William J. Clinton followed and thus we begin to see the clown world we inhabit now. He was able to keep his office all while establishing his "Family man" and "Tough on Crime" policy as president, of which some was real good policy. George W. Bush was the first purely puppet and lame duck president we have had. He really accomplished nothing but the ability to be memed for generations to come. The Obama years following him had some of the absolute worst foreign and domestic policy, social and economic reforms in history. The rest is recent history you should know.

So, in conclusion, the western world is dying and there is only one way to save it. Donald J. Trump disrupted the entire system, and we should not take this opportunity lightly. While Joseph R. Biden was the sitting president he absolutely destroyed the economy, and he was yet another puppet of the globalists behind the curtains and closed doors. All I have done is merely give policy prescriptions for a broken country and outlined its problems. The only way to be able to get close to implementing them all is to fight and win the massive culture war going on in west. We are past the point of deceleration at this juncture so we must press on and push forward. The rest of the world will follow suit as we are already seeing it happen. These are the real times when you see who your ally or enemy is, but remember to always assume stupidity before malevolence, or else you become one of them.

Wake up your fellow Christian.
